TRAITOR!

DESPITE RACE RIOTS AND RISING UNEMPLOYMENT, THIS MAN WANTS TO OPEN THE IMMIGRATION FLOODGATES EVEN WIDER

DURING the last eight years the number of Coloured Immigrants in Britain has nearly doubled. According to the latest Government statistics there were in 1972 "1,371,000" Immigrants in this country. By the end of last year the Government reported that this had increased to "2,104,000".

While these Government figures indicate a clear trend, the actual numbers quoted are entirely bogus.

As has been revealed many years ago Government statisticians do not categorise persons of Afro-Asian racial origin as "Coloured Immigrants" if they have resided in Britain for more than ten years or if they have been born in Britain.

By means of this statistical dishonesty the Government has always been able to cut by at least a half the true number of Coloured Racial Aliens living in Britain.

Despite this the Government figures indicate that between 1970 and 1980 the percentage of Afro-Asian births increased in Birmingham from 20% to 28%; in Leicester from 19% to 33%; in Newham from 23% to 41% and in Brent from 33% to 45%.

These figures mean that alien births have become the major source of increase in the size of the Afro-Asian population in Britain.

NOT RAPID ENOUGH

Judging by his actions Home Secretary William Whitelaw has decided that this staggering increase in the alien population of our country is not rapid enough.

Under the current immigration rules immigrant men are allowed to bring in their wives but immigrant women are not allowed to bring in husbands.

In 1981 8,040 wives from the Indian subcontinent alone were allowed into this country. A large percentage of these women have simply contracted a "marriage of convenience" in order to gain entry to Britain.

In a recent Court case, High Court Judge, Mr. Justice Comyn, stated:

"Marriage of convenience has been a ready method of gaining entrance into this country because it is so difficult for the authorities to show that a lawful marriage was out of convenience."

Far from closing this loophole the Home Office, under Mr. Whitelaw's direction, is currently considering widening it still further by now allowing immigrant women to bring in their husbands.

This not only means that immigrant men and women who are currently married can bring in their wives and husbands, it also means that single men, and soon women, can go to India or Pakistan or Africa and can then bring back a wife or husband.

Mr. Raison, the Home Office minister recently stated that the bringing back of wives by first generation Immigrants would continue into the 1990's but he was unable to estimate how many second generation men would return to the subcontinent to seek brides.

So this method of entry into the UK is a permanent open door with no end.

OVER-STAYERS

Another method of gaining entry to Britain which Mr. Whitelaw is keen to extend is by Immigrants coming into this country as short term visitors. Once inside Britain they simply disappear amongst their own racial communities.

Despite the fact that little, if any, effort is ever made to catch these over-stayers for fear of "upsetting the ethnic community" occasionally some do end up in police custody.

One such group of 33 Filipinos was caught earlier this year and their case put before Mr. Whitelaw. Desperately anxious to curry favour with Immigrants he has decided to "regularise their stay".

The Home Office admits it has no idea how many such Alien Immigrants have come into our country by this method, though it is clear that by including Filipinos, Africans, Iranians and Asians the total will be some hundreds of thousands.

Mr. Whitelaw, by allowing this alien invasion, has become a traitor to his nation and to his race, and Britain has a long tradition in dealing with traitors.

WORLD IGNORES ZIONIST GENOCIDE

THE existence of an 'International Conspiracy of Zionist-Jewry' is a fact which the Zionist-owned mass media has tried to ridicule as being the product of the imaginings of "cranks" and "Nazis".

If more proof were ever needed to establish that such a conspiracy does exist, then it has been provided by the horrific crimes being perpetrated by Israel in the Lebanon during the past two months, and the total inability of the so-called "World Community" to bring the Israeli war criminals to heel.

Israel invaded the Lebanon in reprisal for the assassination bid against the Israeli ambassador in London — but no evidence has emerged to establish that the assassins were associated with — or even supporters of — the Palestinian cause.

EXTERMINATION PLAN

When Israel launched her attack Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin claimed that the purpose of the operation was simply to provide a PLO-free buffer zone north of Israel's border.

But it soon became clear that

Blindfolded Palestinians are led by Israeli soldiers to an "unknown" fate what the Israelis had in mind was the physical extermination of the Palestinian people throughout Lebanon.

Zionist Jews employed terrorist atrocities to steal the land of Palestine from the Palestinians in the first place. Since the creation of Israel the Palestinian people have unremittingly campaigned to draw the world's attention to the injustice that was perpetrated against them and to win at least part of their own land back.

The Palestinian campaign was a perpetual thorn in Israel's side and so, under the leadership of former Irgun Zwei Leumi terrorist Begin, the Israelis decided that the only way to silence Palestinian claims once and for all was to slaughter the Palestinian people — men, women and children.

Israel is totally dependent on the United States for financial and military backing. The American government could stop the slaughter in the Lebanon, if it wanted to, just like switching off a light. But it has done nothing.

It has done nothing because America's economy, mass media and political system is totally dominated by the Zionist-Jewish Money Power.

The Governments of other developed nations are equally impotent — and for the same reason.

The nations of the world will not be able to liberate the Palestinians until they have liberated themselves from the stranglehold of Zionist Jewish International Finance.

WE MUST STRUGGLE TO SUSTAIN BRITISH FREEDOM

THE leader of St. Albans City Council declared that if his council knew of the National Front's intention to stage its anti-IRA march from Harpenden "there would have been sufficient protest to justify the council banning it."

His statement has no basis in law. Under the terms of the Public Order Act, only Chief Constables have the power to instigate march bans — and then only if they believe that "serious" disorders are "likely".

If the independence of Chief Constables from political pressures provided for in the Act were to be eliminated, then Britain would be on the high road to dictatorship.

Sad to say, some Chief Constables are amenable to political pressures, and/or are intolerant of the inconvenience which policing exercises in free speech brings them, and so they invoke their powers to impose bans improperly.

In these cases the NF always makes the effort to side-step such bans to ensure that the machinery of free expression does not go rusty and seize up due to the corrosive effects of the tyranny of officialdom and public apathy.

Each new generation must make the effort to sustain the rights and freedoms hard-won by our forefathers. One day the NF's efforts in this regard will win the gratitude of those of our countrymen who presently misunderstand our motives and who are careless of a precious heritage.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant people in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful — only "racial hatred".

NEW NATION

ANNOUNCEMENT

A meeting of supporters of NEW NATION was held in London on Saturday 1st of May under the chairmanship of the magazine's new editor Andrew Brons.

After a full discussion of NEW NATION's vital role in the NF's programme of ideological development an appeal for funds raised £700.

As a result outstanding debts can be paid and NEW NATION will resume quarterly publication on 1st September this year.

We thank our subscribers for their patience.

CAPITALISM AT WORK

THE MENACE posed to the British nation by Communism is well known to most Britons and certainly to British racial-nationalists who support the National Front.

Wherever Marxist regimes hold power the result is a life of oppression and misery — not least for ordinary working people — and the destruction of nationhood.

Because Communist propagandists have traditionally based the justification for their desired revolution on the "evils of Capitalism", many well-meaning anti-Communists have been conditioned into thinking that they must support Capitalism as the only bastion of their freedom and nationhood.

The National Front rejects that simplistic line of thinking. It holds that the Capitalist system is as much a threat to the survival of our race and nation and the freedom and dignity of the individual as Communism.

We believe this because the sole purpose and justification of Capitalism is the acquisition of profit, and this materialist dynamic leads the Capitalist system to take on the same evil attributes of Communism: monopolisation of economic and political power and the development of international structures which seek to impose a World Government under which individual races and nations have no place.

Several events have taken place in recent months which illustrate clearly the corrupt and menacing nature of Capitalism.

WORKERS BETRAYED

During the Falklands fighting workers in British shipyards worked flat out to convert civilian vessels and to launch new Royal Naval vessels.

Yet when it comes to the replacement of vessels such as the Atlantic Conveyor which was sunk in the South Atlantic it is not to these British workers that Cunard looked.

Lord Matthews, a Peer of the Realm, and head of Trafalgar House, the company which owns Cunard, preferred to use the sweated labour of Korea in the pursuit of profit.

Only after intense financial pressure from Tyne and Wear County Council and with the taxpayer paying Cunard the difference between the British and the Korean prices did the order go to British Shipbuilders.

For Lord Matthews, the needs of Britain and the welfare of British workers are of no consequence — it is only profit that matters.

In Bloomington, Illinois 250 people are seriously ill or have died after handling brown asbestos. An American court has awarded compensation of £32.8 million against the supplier — North American Asbestos, which is owned by Cape Industries, part of the giant multinational group Charter Consolidated.

Rather than honour its obligations Cape Industries did a moonlight flit. It shut down its American offices and hasn't paid a penny compensation to the tragic victims who are now trying to pursue Charter Consolidated.

TRAGIC VICTIMS

Cape Industries was not able to escape its obligations to British victims of asbestos. Mrs. Alice Jefferson who could only walk with the aid of a frame, recently received just £36,000 compensation shortly before she died.

Mrs. Jefferson had worked in a Cape Industries factory for nine months. More than 200 other employees at the same factory in Hebden Bridge, Yorkshire have also contracted asbestos.

Because paying compensation reduces profits, these victims are likely to have to fight for their compensation through the Courts like Alice — if they don't die first.

HMS York, built on the Tyne by British workers, many of whom now face the prospect of the dole queues

Another multinational that has little regard for the welfare of its workers is Shell, the petroleum giant.

This company has recently introduced a "conscious company policy" of concentrating investment outside Britain. While Shell is currently building chemical plants in Saudi Arabia and in Singapore it is threatening to close down a chemical plant in Manchester with the loss of 2000 jobs.

Shell's long term strategy involves re-locating its UK operations to a "marginal position".

Perhaps the most incredible scandal of international capitalism is the case of Roberto Calvi, who was found hanged under Blackfriars Bridge on 18th June. Calvi controlled a banking empire which stretched from Italy to Switzerland, the Bahamas, the Middle East and London.

He was able to build highly influential links with the Vatican through the help of Sicilian banker Michele Sindona, currently serving a 25 year sentence for fraud in America.

FREEMASONRY

Calvi was also involved in the infamous P2 Freemasonic Lodge scandal of financial and political corruption so great that it brought the fall of Italian Prime Minister Arnaldo Forlani's Government.

Calvi was able to move vast sums around the world affecting the lives of thousands of individuals. Calvi's undoubtedly corruption is as nothing to the 'legal' corruption that is called International Finance. Capitalism is the source of that system.

Capitalism is the putting of profit before races, nations and people — the very elements of human society that nationalists believe must come first.

is going bankrupt.

Yet this disaster is occurring in the middle of the period when Britain's industries should be able to expand and re-equip themselves as a result of the income from North Sea oil and gas. There is little prospect for the 1990s by which time both the oil and the gas production will be in decline.

"Things will start to improve, Maggie, when we reach our target of 4½ million unemployed."

Even the staunch Conservative supporters at the employers' organisation, the Confederation of British Industry, have given up looking for a recovery.

They are forecasting more bankruptcies and they even expect the rate at which manufacturing jobs are being lost to increase. This leads them to talk not of a recovery but instead of a "fresh downturn".

Despite having caused this massive catastrophe — a catastrophe that has consigned 300,000 school leavers to life on the dole — the Conservative Government is simply burying its collective head still further into the sand.

Sir Geoffrey Howe, Chancellor of the Exchequer, after hearing the CBI survey report said:

"We have to go on pursuing our policies to achieve further progress."

Cecil Parkinson, Chairman of the Conservative Party, commented:

"Now is not the time to reverse course or talk ourselves into trouble."

Yet the Conservatives don't even know in what direction they are going. The acid test of any economic theory is its ability to predict the effects of putting that theory into practice.

The ability of this Conservative Government to predict the effect of its policies has been unbelievably bad.

In March 1980 the Government White Paper predicted that unemployment in 1982/3 would be just 1.8 million — by the end of this year there is every chance that it will be more than double this figure.

This and other equally wrong predictions were based on the absolute belief in monetarism and in the free market economy. The ridiculous wrongness of their predictions is inevitable because monetarism and the free market economy are wrong and simply don't work.

RECOVERY

Similarly with Thatcher's prediction of a recovery. There will be no recovery because the policies of monetarism and international free trade will only work if British workers are willing to accept the same conditions of work and the same pay as the poorest African or Asian who has never even heard of a contract of employment.

Margaret Thatcher and Geoffrey Howe have total faith in policies which are rapidly leading Britain to disaster.

The economists know that their policies are hopeless, but few of them are willing to suggest alternatives — because they know that within the confines of internationalism and the control of international finance there are no solutions.

Only by smashing this whole system and replacing it with full economic nationalism is there a future for the British people.

TORIES ON TARGET FOR FOUR MILLION JOBLESS

IN JULY the number of jobless reached 3,190,621 — the highest level since records began, worse even than at the height of the 1930s. Nearly one million of these have been looking for work for more than a year.

On top of this about 300,000 people are being kept off the unemployment total while they are taking part in Government training schemes.

Yet far from coming down unemployment shows every sign of increasing still further. During the next three months even the Government expects the number of people looking for work to increase by over 60,000.

Margaret Thatcher's regularly repeated statement that the recession is "bottoming out" and that Britain will then steadily move uphill is now receiving little, if any, support from professional economists.

According to three leading members of the Cambridge Economic Policy Group, the Conservative Government's policies will cause unemployment to grow to over 3½ million by 1984 and by 1987 it will have soared to nearly 4½ million.

The Institute of Employment Research at Warwick University agree that there is no prospect of any reduction in the level of unemployment this decade, and they expect another 300,000 jobs to be lost in manufacturing industry by 1990.

The Cambridge Group's computer analysis shows that Thatcher's policies will not only cause unemployment to soar, they will also destroy the whole basis of British industry. Manufacturing output would remain stagnant at its present level right through into the 1990s, yet this is a massive 14% below even the 1975 level.

Because paying compensation reduces profits, these victims are likely to have to fight for their compensation through the Courts like Alice — if they don't die first.

DECades of Race War in Prospect

WHILE the Government is still trying to make Britain's multi-racial society work by commissioning reports on — and throwing millions of pounds worth of bribes at — the riot-prone Black community, top officials are frantically making plans to contend with decades of race war.

During July the Society of Local Authority Executives (SOLACE) held its annual conference in York. At this the nation's top local government officers considered a 'scenario' prepared for them by the organisation's 'Special Futures Panel'.

The panel had been established last year. Its Chairman, Mr. Michael Rush, Chief Executive of West Glamorgan, told the conference:

"Some of us were staggered to see how speculation could rapidly turn into reality."

The 'scenario' which Mr. Rush's panel prepared involved urban rioting verging on civil war:

"Certain areas would have to be abandoned and no-go areas and urban wastelands would emerge."

"MINORITY GOVERNMENT"

Mr. David Spiers, Chief Executive of Tameside, declared:

"We face a future of bewildering change and great uncertainty. We should be thinking of minority government, because majority government doesn't exist any more."

About six weeks before SOLACE held its conference, the first meeting of a special new committee of the British Standards Institute was convened in London.

Members of the committee include representatives of the Police, the Home Office, the Department of the Environment and the security industry.

The purpose of the committee is to produce guides for the provision of security measures for dwellings, industrial and commercial premises and public places. In short, the committee's brief is to produce design standards for fortresses.

FORTRESSES

The importance of the BSI guides project was stressed by Lord Elton, a Home Office Minister, who attended a recent conference of senior Police officers and local government officers which was held at Torquay in June.

According to the Sunday Times of 27th June:

"What is emerging inexorably from all this debate is a new concept of civil liberty. An Englishman's home will still be his castle — but he will be obliged to have a drawbridge.

"No longer will every citizen be automatically regarded as law-abiding and innocent. Instead, he will need to prove the fact if he is to have trouble-free passage through his daily life."

While all these conferences were going on the Metropolitan Police secured use of derelict ground in River Way, Greenwich, where riot control techniques, including use of a specially imported German water cannon, are practised.

RACIAL FACTS OF U.S. ARMY AND CRIME WAVE

UNITED States military chiefs are increasingly worried about the disproportionate number of Blacks serving in America's armed forces.

They have attempted to impose some element of 'quality control' by only recruiting High School graduates.

However, this measure has little effect as "civil rights" legislation has largely done away with scholastically meaningful graduation examinations as these "discriminated against Blacks" (i.e. Blacks tended to fail them).

At present Blacks constitute 33 per cent of the US Army and 22 per cent of the Marine Corps. Four out of ten Black recruits since the end of conscription in 1973 fall into the lowest 'mental' category that is acceptable.

12,000 representative recruits were recently tested as to their 'mental' status. Whites scored 56, Hispanics scored 31 and Blacks scored 24.

Black gangs on US bases in Europe dominate extensive drug pushing rings. Many Black and some White servicemen are permanently 'high' on and off duty.

The situation on these US Army bases is simply a reflection of society within the United States itself.

The Mayor of San Francisco, Dianne Feinstein, recently promulgated a local by-law forbidding the private possession of handguns.

MURDER RATE

During the first six months of this year the city, with a population of 680,000, had seen 63 murders, nearly half of which involved handguns.

In 1979 there were only eight murders involving hand guns in Britain and 42 in West Germany.

Opposing the new by-law, prominent San Francisco lawyer, Mr. Don Kates, said:

"If you took away the number of US killings committed by jobless Blacks and Latins, you would find the murder rate not so much greater than Europe's."

No — these are not a band of African terrorists but US soldiers defending Western Civilisation.

C.R.O. for trial

WALSALL'S Community Relations Officer, Giovanni 'John' Mastrantone, 33, has been remanded for trial on 12 charges alleging dishonesty.

Mastrantone denies four charges of stealing cash and four charges of stealing tickets from the box office of the Birmingham 'Arts Lab' and four charges of false accounting.

An active supporter of the Anti Nazi League, Mastrantone used his rates-funded office to promote anti-NF propaganda during the last General Election.

A Monster

RAPE is a heinous offence no matter what the race of the rapist or his victim. We do not suggest that rape is the sole prerogative of any one particular race.

But it cannot be denied that Black men (and Black women victims) feature disproportionately in London's rape statistics.

It also cannot be denied that in recent years there has been an upsurge in rape-and-robery attacks on elderly White women by Black men.

Above is a Police photofit picture of a monster who has raped six women in the New Cross area of SE London since February — the youngest being 77, and the oldest 89.

The pro multi-racial news media is forever screaming about "racial attacks" on Immigrants. News of horrors inflicted by Blacks on White old folk is generally suppressed.

Triad terror in London

CHINESE 'Triads' — criminal secret societies — are now fighting out a war for control over illegal Chinese gambling dens and protection rackets in London's 'red light' district of Soho.

This war led to a fire bomb attack on the illegal 39 Club in Gerrard Street, Soho, on the night of 18th July. The fire spread rapidly through the building, killing seven and injuring seven others.

The war is believed to be between the 'Wo Shing Wo' and the 14K Triads.

Animosity between these two gangs is believed to have been aggravated as a result of the activities of ethnic Chinese gangsters from Vietnam who fled that country as 'Boat People' after the Communist takeover.

There has been a series of vicious stabbings among Chinese in Soho in recent months, and four months before the 39 Club fire a 24 year old Chinese was hacked to death with a meat cleaver in the restaurant next door.

Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher is to visit Hong Kong later this year when she will be pressed to allow more 'Boat People' into Britain.

NO RACE RIOTS IN JOBS-STARVED N.E.

WITH more race-riots on the boil we can expect an upsurge of propaganda from multi-racialists blaming the trouble on "unemployment among Blacks."

But the plain facts are that unemployment and poor social conditions are NOT the cause of the riots. The riots are caused by the tensions created in a multi-racial society.

If unemployment and bad social conditions were the cause of the riots, then we would have seen the biggest riots in the North-East of England which, apart from Ulster, is the worst unemployment blight area in Britain.

In Sunderland well over 25 per cent of the workforce is unemployed. In many housing estates, especially those near to the docks, more than 50 per cent of the workforce is unemployed.

Yet the people of Sunderland did not follow the rioting, looting, burning example of Brixton and Toxteth.

RACIAL STABILITY

The reason why is because Brixton and Toxteth are riven with racial tensions which are the inevitable by-product of multi-racial societies.

Sunderland and other NE towns are populated almost exclusively by British folk who value the bonds of kinship and community and who are thereby able to maintain a stable society despite economic hardships.

Sunderland's dockside. Half the workers of this entirely White and riot-free community are unemployed

"AGGRESSION HELPS YOUNG BLACKS"— OFFICIAL REPORT

"THE one clear feature of the new self-image of Black adolescents is the sense of security they derive from assuming positive and sometimes aggressive attitudes and postures."

So said Ghulam-Rasul Malik, principal Race Relations adviser to Wolverhampton Council in a 13 page report to the Council's Race Relations Committee on 9th June.

He also said that Black youth had achieved "a cultural renaissance" through use of the Creole language and reggae music.

Mr. Malik's coy references to the aggression of Black youth may have come into the mind of 22 year old Woman Police Constable Sheena Thomas when she was attacked by 100 Black thugs in the Mander Centre in Wolverhampton on 9th July.

WPC Thomas arrested a Black youth for shop lifting and within seconds she was surrounded by a screaming and jeering mob of male and female young Blacks.

They kicked and punched her, and then tried to throw her over a 30 ft. high parapet.

Thoughts about young Black people's "cultural renaissance" may well serve to comfort 17 year old White youth Lee Martin who is recovering from a savage attack on him by 25 Black youths in West Norwood, South London, on 8th July.

Just like Terry May a year before in nearby Thornton Heath, Lee was dragged off his motorbike and repeatedly slashed and stabbed. He nearly bled to death. His wounds required 100 stitches.

Saltman conviction 'unsafe'— but no re-trial ordered

ACCORDING to the Court of Appeal on 27th July, the conviction of Bernard Saltman in January 1981 on a charge of firing his Aylesbury furniture factory and claiming £160,000 insurance was "unsafe and unsatisfactory". As a result his conviction was "set aside".

At his trial at Aylesbury Crown Court the Judge implied that the jury should acquit Saltman, but the jury found him Guilty. The Judge imposed a minimal two year sentence.

Saltman appealed against conviction, but the Court of Appeal rejected his plea.

Thereafter, Greville Janner, MP, President of the Board of Deputies of British Jews, mobilised a campaign to demand that Saltman's case be reviewed.

Bernard Saltman and his wife praising British Justice outside the Court of Appeal.

from jail and referring his case back to the Court of Appeal.

It was open to the Court of Appeal to order a re-trial, but it decided not to do so "in view of the strain and the suffering" Saltman and his family had gone through.

Saltman is now free to re-submit his insurance claim.

ESTABLISHMENT 'GUNNING' FOR MARTIN WEBSTER

HOME Office and Police Chiefs are involved in a campaign to try and intimidate the National Front by hounding the Party's National Activities Organiser Martin Webster with a series of malicious 'Public Order' prosecutions.

As this issue of NF News is being prepared Mr. Webster and four other NF activists — Gina Hayes, Terry Rowe, David Shrub and Keith Handy — were facing trial on charges of 'Threatening Words' and 'Disorderly Conduct'.

These charges arose from the heckling of the Home Secretary, William Whitelaw at a Young Conservative public meeting at Caxton Hall, Westminster on Monday, 8th February.

The purpose of the heckling was summed up by the first question which Mr. Webster put to Mr. Whitelaw:

"Whitelaw, you bastard — why did you hound Joe Pearce into jail when you refused to press prosecutions against the leaders of the Bristol and Brixton riots?"

After a person unknown let off a "smoke bomb" at the meeting Mr. Whitelaw left the platform. Mr. Webster attempted to restore order at the meeting.

In response to his efforts Mr. Whitelaw came back on the stage and said to Mr. Webster:

"I am prepared to answer your question."

At this Mr. Webster was grabbed by a police officer and ejected from the hall but not arrested as the other four NF members were.

Mr. Webster was only summonsed by the Director of Public Prosecutions (a department supervised by the Home Office) five weeks later!

WITNESS

Mr. Whitelaw was clearly a key witness in this case but the prosecution made no attempt to call him. Mr. Webster made application for a Witness Summons against Mr. Whitelaw but this was only granted after three applications and after one day of the case had been heard.

In a statement to the Press in April the Attorney-General thought fit to try and disprove allegations from Black lawyers that the DPP was in the pocket of the National Front by pointing out that the DPP had decided to prosecute "one of the NF's most prominent members," i.e. Mr. Webster.

The barrister presenting the prosecution case is employed as a legal adviser in Mr. Whitelaw's private office.

NF National Activities Organiser Martin Webster

In revenge for Mr. Webster's securing the Witness Summons against Mr. Whitelaw, the DPP prompted the West Midlands Police to issue a Summons against Mr. Webster alleging that he organised an 'illegal' anti-IRA march in Birmingham early last January contrary to a West Midlands County Council by-law.

Mr. Webster was warned at the time of that march that he was liable to prosecution but after seven months had elapsed it was assumed that the West Midlands Police had thought better of the matter.

The fact that this charge has been disinterred after so long a period of silence is a clear indication that the Establishment is 'gunning' for Mr. Webster and wants to try and neutralise him at a time of possible renewed major disorder in multi-racial areas.

BACKLASH

Ever since the first of the latest series of Black uprisings in Britain — at Bristol in April 1980 — the authorities have sought to eliminate the activities of the National Front and indeed any manifestation of a 'White Backlash'.

The authorities need to crush opposition to their strategy of trying to pacify the Black community by treating Black riot leaders leniently and by bribing the Black community with a variety of 'Positive Discrimination' schemes.

Mr. Webster's ability to organise National Front activities despite bans has finally provoked the authorities to launch a vendetta against him.

IS IT WORTH THE EFFORT TO FIGHT THOSE MARCH BANS? THE HEADLINES THAT SAY IT ALL!

ONCE again National Front activists have acted in defence of the right of free speech and assembly by circumventing — entirely within the law — a Public Order Act march ban.

The theme of the march "Free Speech — Scrap The Race Relations Act" was changed to "Hang IRA Murderers" because of the bombings in Central London on 20th July.

As is customary the police were notified of the march well in advance and a conference took place at Luton Police Station on 26th July.

On Thursday 29th July a ban on marches in Luton was announced. The NF made it clear that the activity would go ahead in Bedfordshire and as a result, on Friday 30th July, the ban was extended to the whole of Bedfordshire.

BORDER

NF Organisers discovered that the A1081 running North from Harpenden in Hertfordshire constituted the border between Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire. Thus NF coaches were redirected from a pre-arranged assembly point in Dunstable, Bedfordshire to a common in Harpenden.

At 2.30 pm on the Saturday 300 NF marches with "Hang IRA Murderers" placards, Union Jacks and Branch banners marched through Harpenden and along the left hand side of the road keeping just two

NF take to the streets

HUNDREDS of National Front supporters staged an anti-IRA rally near the centre of Luton on Saturday despite a Government ban on extra police from Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire were on duty in case of trouble, but the event went off without incident.

The NF got round the ban by marching along the main road through Dunstable and then turning inland to the north of Bedfordshire.

Then they marched into Luton for a rally at the junction of the A1081 and the A1.

As the Bedfordshire ban was on marches not meetings, the NF's activities were perfectly legal, and the NF national activities director, Martin Webster, was in attendance when the march was in progress.

Harpenden activists provided an escort for the NF marchers on Harpenden Common, with Union Jacks, Union banners, NF flags and NF banners.

NF protesters congregate in Harpenden to begin their march in Hertfordshire, and thus avoid Bedfordshire's ban.

SIDE-STEP AVOIDS BAN ON MARCHES

POST-ECHO 2-8-82

NF march round ban

A NATIONAL Front march went off peacefully after the right-wing organisation had been forced to march round the border between Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire.

The NF originally wanted to march through Luton to a rally at the junction of the A1081 and the A1.

As the Bedfordshire ban was on marches not meetings, the NF's activities were perfectly legal, and the NF national activities director, Martin Webster, was in attendance when the march was in progress.
